GOLF

DUMMER TIES THAYER AT OULD NEWBURY

The second golf match of the year resulted in a tie when the Dummer team met Thayer Academy on the Ould Newbury course on May 7. The strength in the second combination pulled the home quartet out of a loss. Wilson won his match without much trouble, but he and English could not team up to offset the fine golf of Hutton of the visitors who won his match comfortably and was principally responsible for their victory in the foursome. Fearnside and Schultz took their four-ball, and Fearnside won his match.

The singles:

Singles: R. Hutton (T) defeated English (D) 4 up and 3 to play. Wilson (D) defeated Chamberlain (T) 4 up and 3 to play. Fearnside (D) defeated H. Hutton (T) 1 up. Cleveland (T) defeated Schultz (D) 1 up.

Four-ball: R. Hutton and Chamberlain (T) defeated English and Wilson (D) 2 up and 1 to play. Fearnside and Schultz (D) defeated H. Hutton and Cleveland (T) 2 up and 1 to play.

GOLF TEAM DROPS BEVERLY HIGH MATCH

On May 10 the Dummer golf team playing on the Ould Newbury golf course carded its first loss of the season at the hands of the Beverly High team 3 to 2. All the matches were close affairs and a putt one way or the other might have changed the score considerably. Wilson, playing number two, made a fight of his match game enough to befit that of a champion. His opponent had him six down and seven to play, and he managed by fine golf to square the match on the seventeenth green only to lose when aforesaid opponent canned a thirty footer on the last green. Schultz and English, the only members of the losing team to bring home the bacon, had close matches; and while Schultz pulled out with a fair margin, English was carried to the last putt on the home carpet. The match was played in five singles, and the results were:

English (D) defeated Jorgensen (B) 1 up. Cassidy (B) defeated Wilson (D) 1 up. McGlynn (B) defeated Fearnside (D) 2 up. Schultz (D) defeated Morris (B) 3 up and 1 to play. Kirby (B) defeated Griggs (D) 4 up and 3 to play.

BASEBALL

DUMMER 24, TRAIIP 7

The trip to Traip Academy on May 1 resulted in the second win of the baseballists when they swamped the home team 24 to 7. The game turned out to be little more than a practise farce for the strong Dummer nine, and substitutions were frequent. White started in the box for the first three innings, and in this period he struck out seven batsmen, but allowed four runs. He was at a disadvantage as far as support went as the outfielders had to face a glaring sun, and several flies that should have been easily caught were missed entirely. As the game progressed, however, the gardeners learned to gauge the sun and played airtight ball. Wilson followed White into the box for three innings and baffled the batters in his usual style. The other three runs were off him, but were caused principally by old Sol. With two on bases in the first, this young southpaw cracked out one good for two bags, but it landed on a rock in the outfield and bounced into Portsmouth Harbor for a home run. Fitzsimmons relieved Wilson in the box and was in turn relieved by McGinley. Jack Van Etten did the receiving during the whole game in creditable style and looks good for next year. "Doc" Hinds, the regular catcher, spent the first inning on the bench, but went in for Pillsbury at third in the second and finished out the game there. The hitters were all using their best eyes and amassed a total of thirty-one hits.

DUMMER 17, DeWITT CLINTON 2

The Dummer nine added another step to the proof that it is the best we have supported in many years on May 5 by defeating DeWitt-Clinton 17 to 2. Captain White pitched the first seven innings and featured strike-outs to the number of eleven. Wilson who succeeded him at the slab fanned two. The game started off like it would be a real battle, but the winners were never headed and

THE JUNIOR PROM

The much heralded Junior Prom came off in due style at the Ould Newbury Golf Club on May 8. To say that it was a success is to put it mildly. The committee outdid themselves in all respects, and everything from the grandeur of the decorations to the completeness of all the smaller details was carefully planned and executed. Excellent music was furnished by the Tufts College Mis-sourians, eleven pieces strong, who made a great hit all around. More than fifty young ladies invaded the premises to enjoy the annual event and their wishes were more than fulfilled. After Dummer's walkover on the home diamond in the afternoon, all were in high spirits for the occasion. A supper was served at the club to those who attended at six thirty. The affair was strictly formal, dance orders were in order, and each member of the fair sex was presented with a compact suitably engraved to commemorate the event. The catering was taken care of in a flawless manner by John Edwards, the popular and efficient chef of the club; and his punch, ice cream, and cake left nothing to be desired. The hall was decorated with blue and gold streamers above and detailed objets d'art around the walls. Ferns and geraniums decorated the walls. The party was ended with the usual noise-making and confetti-throwing. The patrons and patronesses were: Dr. and Mrs. Ingham, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Budgell, Mrs. Pickering, Mrs. Pillsbury, Mrs. Calderwood, Mrs. Morse and Miss Brown. The committee in charge were: George Haley, chairman, Frank McKinney, Elvin Cox, Norton Pickering and John Calderwood.

Work on the Athletic Field has been delayed on account of the cold weather. Contractor Little feels that it is unwise to stable his horses in the old barn with the present weather conditions.

We understand that if Paul Revere had ridden down the Newburyport Turnpike, we would have had the nineteenth for a holiday.

EDITORIAL

In just about two more weeks our last class will be over. Merely a matter of four more days and our final exams will be over, for better or for worse. Commencement day will come and go taking the school with it. Then, theoretically, the school year will be over; but, in fact, for many of us the most important phase will have just begun. Then comes the culmination of the year's work, college entrance examinations. Whether we have loafed or worked, wasted a year or not, whether we are to be advanced or retarded will be shown inexorably. Speaking in vernacular it will all come out in the wash—the College Board Examinations.

Many of us have the tendency to more or less look on these examinations in a false light. They present no unusual difficulties to the man who does his job everyday faithfully. But if one hasn't been consistent in his work remember that it is better late than never. Much can be accomplished in these last two weeks of school and in the two weeks preceeding the Board Exams. It is certainly worth our best and most sustained effort.

It seems that the wrong attitude is frequently taken toward these last two weeks between Commencement and the College Boards. By many it is regarded in the light of a vacation to be taken as such. One is put more on his honor than usual, rules are less rigid, and instead of taking advantage of this by bending one's efforts harder than ever, a good many work the wrong way trying to get away with as much as they can while the opportunity presents itself. When the school presents this chance of covering an immense amount of review in a short time in practically individual work anyone who does not intend to make the most of it should stay at home and not retard the works.

DUMMER WINS OVER
BURDETT, 7 TO 0

On May 13 Dummer shut out the Boston branch of Burdett College on the Ould Newbury course 7 to 0 without even coming close to losing a match except the first foursome. The strength of the last combinations asserted itself again by their comfortable wins. The first foursome was not settled until the last hole when a par by English put them in the lead. The course is now rounding into shape, and good shots are coming more frequently. Preferred lies were recently abandoned and the greens are absolutely flawless. The last three men are little worse than the first two and can be relied upon to bring in some points in every match.

The results:

Singles: English (D) defeated Bond (B) 5 up and 3 to play. Wilson (D) defeated Dupeault (B) 3 up and 2 to play. Fearnside (D) defeated Keyes (B) 4 up and 2 to play. Schultz (D) defeated Lee (B) 7 up and 6 to play. Griggs (D) defeated Murchison (B) 8 up and 6 to play.

Foursome: English and Wilson (D) defeated Bond and Dupeault (B) 1 up. Fearnside and Schultz (D) defeated Keyes and Lee (B) 4 up and 3 to play.

News of Interest

The Milestone goes to press at the end of this week, and will be ready for distribution late in May. "Jerry" May is at the helm this year, and it should be able to match with the best copies in appearance as well as finance.

During the past week pictures have been taken of practically all the organizations in school including the five classes, the school group, individuals of the seniors and faculty, the Milestone board, the Archon board, the Dramatic Club, the Student Council, the major sport captains, and the managers. These will all appear in the Milestone.

Diverting from the old custom of taking College Board Examinations, a new plan will be tried out this year. Those taking the exams will remain at school after Commencement until June 19th when they will go home and undergo the ordeal at the nearest place to their own home.

The board walks are now being taken up, and the campus is taking its annual treatment of grading and general cleaning up. The running track has long since disappeared.

The entries for the doubles and singles annual tennis tournament closed on May 11, and a good sized field will compete for the prizes. The first round of the singles has already been played, and the doubles will get under way shortly. In place of the old method of drawing for partners each man may now choose his own. This should produce a finer brand of tennis and be a little fairer to the good players.

On May 22 the last series of plays for the year will be presented in the Lang gymnasium. There will be four on the program, and at the end there will be dancing.

The school continued its work of reforestation. Five thousand young pines were planted on Water-Tower Hill.

The Foreman of grounds has put in a profitable week in covering the unsightly ash heaps. The removal of these dumps from the near vicinity of the Campus would add greatly to its appearance.

The class of 1916 led by Fred Goodwin are planning a big reunion at Dummer this June.

Mr. Laurence P. Dodge of the Board of Trustees has generously offered a cup to be contested for by past and present students at Commencement. The terms are eighteen holes medal play.

May 15 was taken as the general week end for the spring term.

CLASS ELECTIONS

At a recent meeting of the Junior Class, officers were elected for the coming year. Student Council nominees were chosen, and business matters pertaining to next year were discussed. Rules were drawn up placing limits on the freedom of younger generation living in Moody House which will go into effect the first of next year. The following officers were re-elected: McKinney, president; Haley, vice-president; English, secretary and Cox, treasurer. McKinney, Woodward, and Haley were nominated for the Student Council, and from these two will be chosen by the faculty.

gradually drew away for their big lead. The only scoring in the first was done by Hinds who was playing shortstop. Hart, the regular short fielder, was in the infirmary, and Van Etten did all the catching allowing "Doc" to go into the infield. A single and two stolen bases put him on third and he came home on an error. Two hits and a free pass scored Wilson and Sleeper in the second. DeWitt's only inning came in the fourth when they started at the head of their batting order again. The first four men successively singled, and two of them crossed the plate for the only score of the day. Another was put out at the plate. White then steadied down and fanned the next two batters. Aside from one lone hit in the seventh those were the only ones he allowed. Two hits and an error netted runs in the fifth by Hinds and Calderwood. The seventh, however, was Dummer's big inning. Fitzsimmons drew a base on balls, White and Wilson filled the bases on errors. Van Etton, Hyams, Hinds, and Bottger successively reached first forcing in runs and keeping the bases full. McGinley then doubled. Fitz made first on a fielder's choice when they failed to put Bottger out at the plate. Both these men came home before the inning was out. Dummer still had some tricks in the bag, and in the eighth on three hits Sleeper and Pillsbury crossed the pan. Fourteen hits were landed by the winners, and they played fine baseball all the way through.

DUMMER 27, TRAIP 0

On May 8 the Dummer nine shut out Traip Academy at South Byfield in the second game of the series 27 to 0. Dummer scored at will and smashed out twenty-one hits. Fitzsimmons started in the box with Van Etten catching, and in the fifth Wilson went to the slab and Hinds came in from third to catch. After the varsity scored nine runs in the first frame and totalled twenty-one in the first three, they were gradually replaced by members of the second team. Dummer hit seven times in the first and thirteen men faced the pitcher. Hinds started off the party with a double and triples by McGinley and Van Etten aided the cause considerably. Hinds scored twice and Wilson, McGinley, Hart, Sleeper, Van Etten, Calderwood, and Fitzsimmons scored once each for our nine runs. Sleeper started off the second with a double and scored on White's single. White stole two bases and scored on Calderwood's single. Hinds doubled again to score Calderwood but died on third. In the third Dummer, duplicating the performance of the first, sent thirteen men to bat and scored nine runs. McGinley came through with a home run with two on the bags. Hinds and Hart both hit two baggers to bring in runs. Calderwood and Fitzsimmons scored in the fifth when both singled. Wilson singled in the sixth, and Pillsbury made first on an error and both scored. Bottger brought down the curtain in the seventh by making the most of a base on balls. McGinley had the perfect hitting record with a homer and three singles out of four trips to the plate. Hinds hit a three-bagger, three doubles, and a single out of six chances.

DUMMER 8, COUNTRY DAY 3

The second game of the Country Day series played at Newton on May 11 resulted in an 8 to 3 win for the Dummer nine. White pitched the whole game and Van Etten did all the catching. Country Day scored first in the fourth, but Dummer tied it up again in the fifth and sent over five runs in the seventh for a safe lead. Both teams sent two men across in the eighth. Green of Country Day made first on an error and scored on Johnson's triple. White retaliated by striking out the next three batters in succession and holding Johnson on third. White singled in the fifth and scored on Hinds' double tying up his own game. In the seventh Kenney drew a base on balls and White was on on a fielder's choice, both to score on Hinds' triple. Fitzsimmons singled and McGinley doubled and then scored himself. In the eighth Sleeper hit a Texas Leaguer, and Calderwood caught hold of a three-bagger and then came home for the last run of our eighth. Country Day followed this up with a rally and scored two runs. Johnson singled and came in on Whorf's three-bagger. Ellis sent in Whorf with a single. Dummer amassed eleven hits and White struck out eleven batsmen.
